AIM. GROW. PUSH.

A quick introduction to Deadlock: third-person combat meets the decisions, growth and shared objectives of a team strategy game.

COMBAT PROGRESSION OBJECTIVES

01

Your aim matters.

Read the space, track your target and use your hero’s tools.

02

So do your choices.

What you buy, where you go and when you group all shape the match.

FIND YOUR KIND OF FIGHT.

Heroes bring distinct tools and personalities. Start with a style you enjoy, then learn the rhythm of that character.

TEAMWORK

TRY

One hero, several matches.

Learn the feel of your abilities before chasing a perfect build.

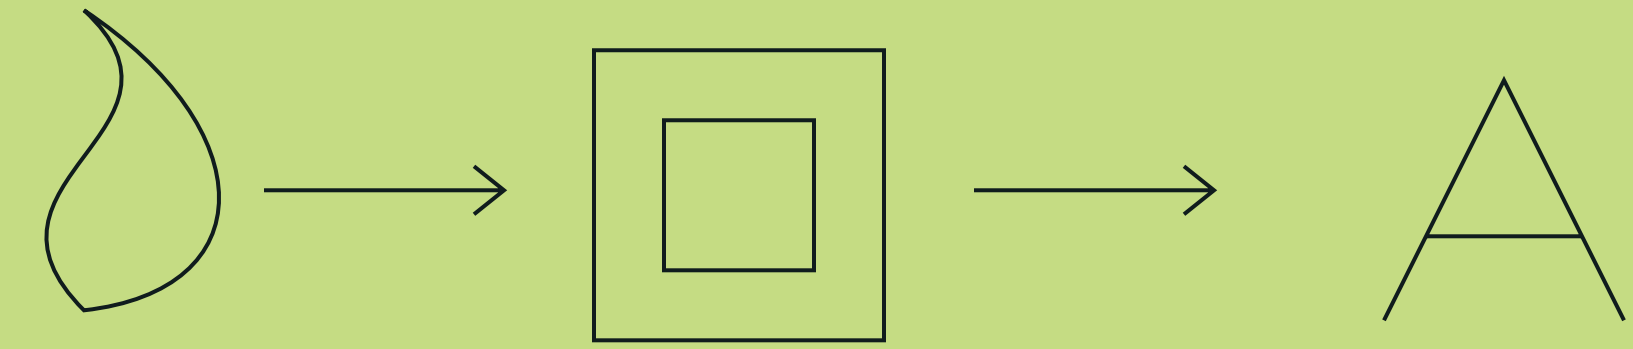

NOTICE

What helps your team?

A good moment can be a save, a setup or a well-chosen rotation.

TURN SOULS INTO OPTIONS.

Souls fuel your progression. Use them to buy items and develop your hero as the match changes.

BUILD

Buy with intent.

Choose upgrades that support your hero and the situation in front of you.

ADAPT

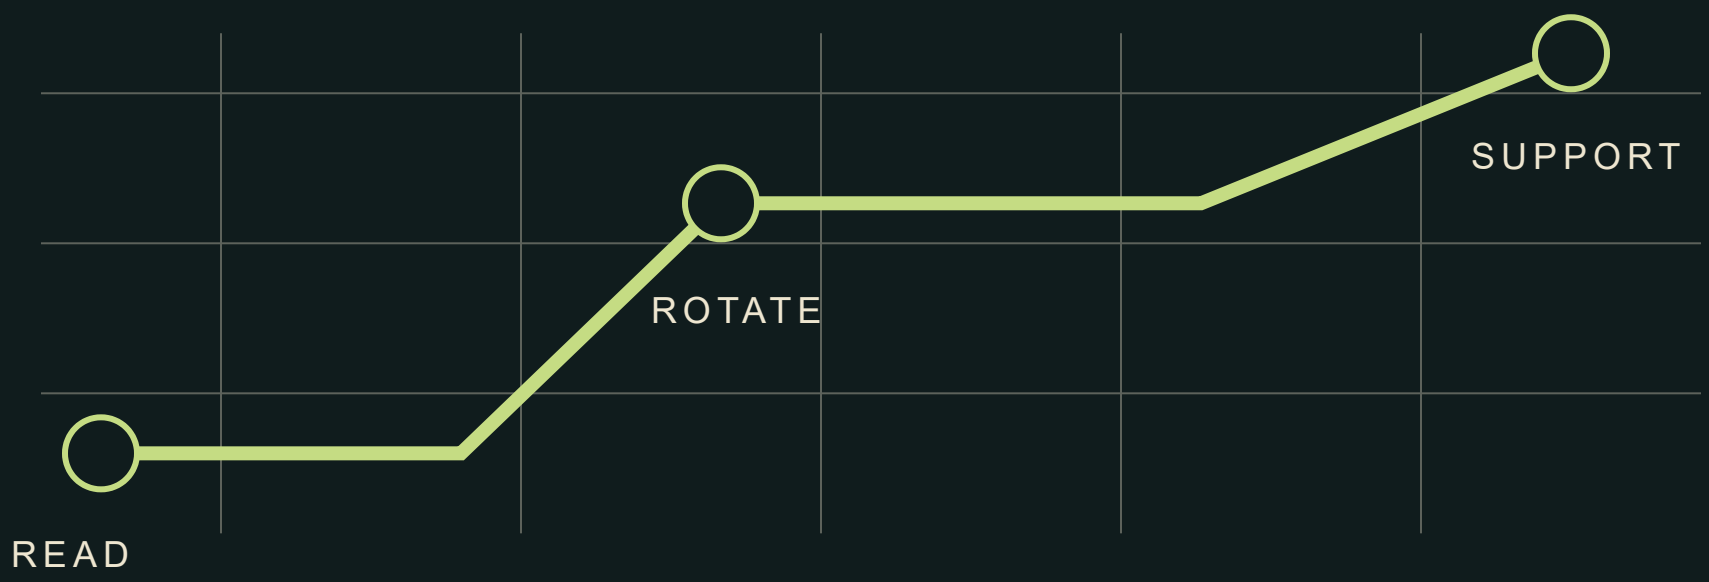

Look at the match.

An item is part of a plan. Revisit that plan as threats and opportunities change.

Conceptual progression diagram. Item values and balance change during development.

MOVE WITH A PURPOSE.

The city is part of the contest. Routes, timing and nearby teammates can matter as much as the next shot.

CHECK

Before you commit.

Know where help can come from and where you can leave.

CONNECT

Travel with intent.

Use movement to reach an opportunity, support an ally or reset.

Illustrative route diagram, not a gameplay map.

WIN THE NEXT MOMENT.

You do not need to understand every system at once. Begin with a few repeatable habits and build from there.

01

Choose a hero.

Explore the tools and learn what each ability is for.

02

Watch your resources.

Notice health, stamina and opportunities to spend souls.

03

Work with your team.

Follow up on a useful opening and make your intentions clear.

04

Play the objective.

Connect your fighting and movement to the shared goal.

BEFORE YOU GO

Deadlock is in early development. Access is currently through invitations from existing playtesters. Check the official Steam page for the current status.
